The cardiovascular concept from Dr. Wolz:

Cocoa flavanols of the best quality

We only use pure and high quality cocoa flavanols for the production of our Cardio Care capsules. In contrast to commercially available cocoa, the important phytochemicals are not lost, but are retained in large preserved numbers. That is why we can also offer cocoa flavanols in standardized quantities.

These reasons speak for Dr. Wolz:

- Innovative family-run company with more than 50 years of experience.
- Global trust: Customers in over 40 countries rely on Dr. Wolz.
- At the cutting edge of science: In our own research and development, we work closely with renowned institutes and clinics.
- Production from a single source: The products are manufactured at our production site in Geisenheim/Rheingau.
- Highest quality standards: All products are regularly inspected by independent laboratories
- Certified quality management system.
